A BILL

To amend the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 to extend the discretionary spending limits through fiscal year 2032, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Controlling America’s
5 Perilous Spending Act”.

1 SEC. 2. EXTENSION OF DISCRETIONARY SPENDING LIMITS.

2 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
3 gress that—

4 (1) the current fiscal trajectory is
5 unsustainable, with the Federal debt now exceeding
6 $30 trillion;

7 (2) the Congressional Budget Office projects
8 that spending, as a share of Gross Domestic Prod-
9 uct, will rise from 19.6 percent in fiscal year 2022,
10 to 24.3 percent by the end of the decade, and the
11 Federal debt is projected to increase by approxi-
12 mately $16 trillion over the next 10 years;

13 (3) the absence of fiscal guardrails, such as 14 statutory discretionary spending caps, means that
15 there is no meaningful restraint on Congress' ability
16 to appropriate excessive spending;

17 (4) spending caps are a necessary tool to help
18 bring spending under control and were in place from 19 1991 through 2002 and again from 2012 through 20 2021;

21 (5) this legislation is a framework, based on
22 May 2022 Congressional Budget Office projections,
23 that would help rein in discretionary spending; and

24 (6) the discretionary caps set forth below are
25 designed to slow discretionary spending growth rates

1 and may need to be amended to incorporate subse-
2 quent baseline changes prior to becoming law.

3 (b) EXTENSION.—Section 251(c) of the Balanced
4 Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (2
5 U.S.C. 901(c)) is amended—

6 (1) in paragraph (7)(B), by striking “and” at 7 the end; and

8 (2) by inserting after paragraph (8) the fol-
9 lowing:

10 “(9) for fiscal year 2023, $1,587,164,000,000
11 in new budget authority;

12 “(10) for fiscal year 2024, $1,618,907,280,000
13 in new budget authority;

14 “(11) for fiscal year 2025, $1,651,285,425,600
15 in new budget authority;

16 “(12) for fiscal year 2026, $1,684,311,134,112
17 in new budget authority;

18 “(13) for fiscal year 2027, $1,717,997,356,794
19 in new budget authority;

20 “(14) for fiscal year 2028, $1,752,357,303,930
21 in new budget authority;

22 “(15) for fiscal year 2029, $1,787,404,450,009
23 in new budget authority;

24 “(16) for fiscal year 2030, $1,823,152,539,009
25 in new budget authority;

1           “(17) for fiscal year 2031, $1,859,615,589,789
2           in new budget authority; and

3           “(18) for fiscal year 2032, $1,896,807,901,585
4           in new budget authority;”.

5           (c) POINT OF ORDER.—Section 254 of the Balanced
6 Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 (2
7 U.S.C. 904) is amended by adding at the end the fol-
8 lowing:

9           “(k) POINT OF ORDER.—

10           “(1) IN GENERAL.—It shall not be in order in
11           the House of Representatives or the Senate to con-
12           sider any bill or joint resolution, or amendment
13           thereto or conference report thereon, that suspends,
14           waives, or otherwise prevents a sequestration order
15           from taking effect under this section.

16           “(2) WAIVER.—Paragraph (1) may be waived
17           or suspended in the Senate only by an affirmative
18           vote of three-fifths of the Members, duly chosen and 19           sworn.”.
